PRAISE AND TESTIMONY

Tune—Canaan, bright Canaan, 218.
Dear Saviour, praise to Thee we raise,
Our hearts and voices blending;
To Thee, our King, we gladly sing,
Thy love now comprehending.
From sin's dark night into the light
And joy of God's Salvation
Now we are brought, for Thou hast
Wrought for us true liberation.

Chorus

We praise Thee, we praise Thee,
Whose Blood from sin redeems Whose blood from sin redeems us;
With heart and voice we now rejoice,
And sing Thy praise, dear Jesus,
Though vile and sad, there's none
Too bad
For Thee, dear gracious Saviour;
The worst may come, there's well
Come home,
Back to God's smile and favour.
Through Thee, who gave Thy Blood
To save
The lost on Calvary's mountain,
For all who will there's cleansing
Still,
And healing in that fountain.

WAR AND TESTIMONY

Tune—Come, shout and sing, 221.
Come, shout and sing, make Heaven ring.
With praises to our King,
Who bled and died, was crucified,
That He might pardon bring;
His Blood death save the soul,
Doth cleanse and make it whole,
The Blood of Jesus cleanses white
as snow.

Chorus

Oh, the Blood of Jesus cleanses
white as snow.
Come, join our hand, and make a stand
To drive sin from our land;
"To do or die," our battle cry;
We fight at God's command,
With banner wide unfurled,
We tell to all the world,
The Blood of Jesus cleanses white
as snow.
At trumpet's sound we stand our ground,
And tell to those around
Who have been long, with shackles strong,
By sin and Satan bound.
Salvation God has sent
For all who will repent
The Blood of Jesus cleanses white
as snow.

JESUS DIED FOR ME

Tune—Hidlog in Thee, or Blue
Jells of Scotland.
'Twas love so amazing, dear Jesus,
my King,
That caused Thee to suffer, my pardon to bring;
That caused Thee to seek me when wandering from Thee,
And purchase Salvation by dying for
me. [Repeat.]

I think of the sins of my past
wretched life,
Against Thee I struggled, and sad
was the strife;
How was it, dear Jesus, I scarcely can see,
Thou lovest me so freely by dying
for me? [Repeat.]

I think of the loneliness, sadness, and tears
The cross and the vinegar, storm
and the jeers;
Thy death, sweat, and anguish on dark Calvary;
O Jesus, I love Thee for dying for
me. [Repeat.]

FILL ME WITH THE FIRE!

Tune—Lord, fill my craving heart,
Band Book, 45.
While here before Thy Cross I
kneel,
To me Thy love impart;
With a deep burning love forsoul,
Lord fill my craving heart.

With mighty power my soul baptize,
My longing heart inspire;
That I may from this moment rise
A living flame of fire.

I want in this dark world to shine,
And ever faithful be,
That all around shall know I'm Thine,
In blest reality.

THE SWEETEST STORY

Tune—The sweetest story ever told.
A dear and precious story I have heard,
'Tis written on the pages of God's Word;
How Jesus came to seek and save Counting not how great must be the cost.
How He gave His life upon the tree,
Opened Calvary's stream for you
and me;
Then Redemption's plan He did un-
fold,
Precious story—sweetest ever told.

Chorus

Jesus came to save me,
Came to bring the wanderer to the
fold;
Loved me—sought and found me;
And He's the sweetest story ever told.

In My Father's House are mansions
built,
E'en for you a place I will prepare;
That where I am ye may be evermore,
'Mid the glories of that golden shore.
Follow in My way, nor turn aside,
Tell to all the world that I have died,
Precious story, even though 'tis old,
'Tis the sweetest story ever told.
—S. E. Cox, Captain.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED!

Adjutant Turner, who is working
among the troops at the Exhibition
Camp, Toronto, would be glad to hear from anyone with musical ability, who is willing to help in the services at the Camp. An organist and some comrades with stringed instruments would add greatly to the attractiveness of the meetings.
For further particulars apply to Adjutant Turner, Salvation Army
Hall, Exhibition Camp, Toronto.

Women Workers
ARE WANTED FOR
The Special Service Legion

Mrs. Brigadier Green would like to hear from any woman Salvationist residing in Toronto, who would be willing to devote part of her time to visiting the wives and families of soldiers who have been killed in the present war.

A number of consecrated workers are already engaged in this work, and are bringing cheer and blessing into many lives. There is an opportunity for others to join the Legion to do
systematic visitation. Write to Mrs.

BAND NOTES

In spite of the fact that recruiting efforts have cut up the St. Catharines Band the same as most others, we are by no means dead, and while we have played partly out of those of our number who have done the trick, the rest of us have reformed with a strong determination never to let the old flag fall. We can still muster sixteen players, and last week Lieut. Colonel Chandler conducted the Commissioning Service. There were quite a few changes made, which, we believe, will work out for the betterment of the Band, both musically and spiritually. Brother Len Lewis was appointed the Bandmaster, with Bandmaster George Gilliland (Junior) as Deputy. Brothers Joe Rice took the place of Band Sergeant. We have discontinued the Sunday afternoon Frolics, and a Band Bible Class has been formed, under the leadership of Sergeant-Major Capper.

Bandmaster Southall, of Hereford, England, a brother of Major Southall, has sent us some verses composed by his father-in-law, the late Bandmaster Mitchell. They were written as a tribute to the Bandmen who went down on the "Empress of Ireland." The last verse is as follows:

Sweetly, Oh, sweetly, each doth rest,
And one and all who did their best,
Do rescue those on sin's dark shore;
They'll sound His praise for ever more.

With the full score and final sheet,
Be first rehearsed at Jesu's feet!
Comrades, let's all be there!

It is interesting to note that Bandmaster Wm. Coles, of Edmonton, Alta., is a step-son of our promoted comrade.

Prayer Topics

1. For a greater, more definite trust in God throughout these testing times.
2. For a real revival of religion throughout the Empire and the world.
3. That we may all learn the lesson our Lord would teach us in these war-time days.
4. For our dear Young People to have a clear understanding of Divine Love and Salvation.
5. For the Army's Leaders.
6. For all who try to alleviate suffering among our troops.
7. For all who labour for the Salvation of our troops.
8. For all who are lonely on account of separation from dear ones.
9. For a real spirit of loyalty—not only to Empire, but to all that is true and holy—to take possession of all hearts.
10. That the evil of strong drink may be speedily banished from our land.

Bible Study on Strong Drink
SUNDAY—Leviticus 10:8-11.
MONDAY—Proverbs 20:1.
TUESDAY—Proverbs 31:4-5.

THURSDAY—Isaiah 20:1.
FRIDAY—Luke 1:5.
SATURDAY—Jerem. 35:6, 18, 19.

THE ARMY MOTHER AND STRONG DRINK

In view of the present general movement toward putting away the drink, it is of interest to read our Army Mother's pronouncement on it in the first days of the War—B. J.

"The use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage is the cause and strength of a very large proportion of the wickedness, crime, vice, and misery which exist around us. With this proposition many of us are saty-

The Sydney Mines Band, like others, has suffered losses during the circumstances of the past year or two, but we are now on the upgrade, numerically, musically, and, last but not by any means least, spiritually. We have started the weekly practice a half-hour earlier, so as to have a little extra season of prayer and a verse or two from the Word, taken week about by the Bandmen. Even the music seems to go better after this—S.

too familiar; it needs neither proof nor illustration; indeed, with some little modification, it is coming to be admitted in almost all quarters, even among the greatest enemies of our principles.

Baneful Harvest

The time is fast passing in which there has existed a difference of opinion among the wise and good as to the real character of these drink. The baneful harvest of crime and misery which their consumption has entailed on us as a nation has opened the eyes of almost every thinking and patriotic mind to the fact that the drink, not the abuse of it, but the drink itself, is an evil thing, in every sense of the word. The product of Satan and man, and to be rejected and eschewed by all who have any regard for their own or their neighbour's well-being.

We have no hesitation in affirming that strong drink is Satan's chief instrumentality for keeping the masses of this country under his power.

What is to be done? How shall we deal with our drink? We answer: In the name of Christ and humanity, deal with it as you do with all other Satan-invented, Christ-disfranchising, soul-enslaving, pleasure-seeking, and health-destroying, deal with it as you do with all other Satan-invented, Christ-disfranchising, soul-enslaving, pleasure-seeking, and health-destroying, deal with it as you do with all other Satan-invented, Christ-disfranchising, soul-enslaving, pleasure-seeking, and health-destroying.

I submit that there is no other way for Christians to deal with strong drink. All other ways have been tried and have failed. The time has come for Christians to denounce the use of intoxicating drinks as irreverent and immoral.

The men of the 144th Battalion were cheered Wednesday night in their rooms in the Forrester building, Fort Street, by a concert given by their new Band. This Band is in charge of Bandmaster Chas. Newman of the Salvation Army Citadel Band, and in their first public appearance gave a good account of themselves. The men of the Battalion showed their appreciation in no uncertain way of the success of their comrades in the Band in getting into condition to play in public so quickly. The Band did not start their practicing until late in last week. In addition to several marches and selections, the members also contributed "Instrumental Solos," which caught on well with the boys. Evidently Bandmaster Newman and his men are going to give the other battalion bands a run for their money. It is of interest to know that each member of the 144th Band is a member or adherent of The Salvation Army—Winnipeg Free Press.

HAVE YOU FRIENDS AT THE FRONT?

For the information of those who would like to communicate with Salvation Army Chaplains, the names and addresses are as follows: Captain R. Penfold, 26 Cheriton Road, Folkestone, England. Captain G. B. Robinson, 30th Reserve Battalion, Napier Barracks, Sharncliffe, England.

The Praying League

"Prevention Better. We all profess to believe that prevention is better than cure; i.e., seeing, then, that strong drink is proved to be the most dangerous foe to perseverance in righteousness, and the most potent cause of defection, inconsistency, and apostasy, ought not Christians to strive, both by example and precept, to warn the young, the weak, and the inexperienced from touching it?

Can any man answer for the consequences of putting a bottle to his neighbour's mouth, be it ever such a small one, or ever such a gentle one? God has recorded His curse against the man who does this, and thousands of home-broken parents, broken-hearted wives and weeping, blighted children groan their anathema to the dreadful sin.

Perchance there are some men who can take these drinks in what they call moderation and suffer no visible injury; nevertheless, let that man beware who touches that which God has cursed, for there are injuries invisible more to be dreaded than all the plagues of Egypt!

What About the Children?

But, suppose some people could take these drinks without hurting themselves, will they dare answer for their children? Alas! there are thousands of parents, to-day whose gray hairs are sinking in sorrow as they gaze through the impermanence of sons and daughters, who first acquired a taste for drink by sipping out of their own glasses, never used but in moderation!

O Christian! by your peace of conscience on a dying bed; by the eternal destinies of your children; by your concern for the glory of your God; by your care for reverend souls; by the love you owe your Saviour, I beseech you banish the drink.

Look on the multitudes who are led as sheep to the shambles by this great destroyer. Look on thousands, yea, tens of thousands of your fellow-countrymen, husbands and fathers, robbed of their earnings, their manhood, their reason and turned loose on their hapless wives and children, worse, more unreasonably, tyrannical, and savage than the wild beasts of the forest.

Look upon thousands of poor, suffering women called wives who have to endure all a drunkard's tyranny and fury, while working for the children's bread, and struggling vainly to keep a home where they may lay their heads.

Look on multitudes of our youth, lured from their homes, inspired by the contempt of parental counsel, drawn into gay and immoral society—dragged down from comparative innocence and virtue to idleness, degeneracy, and crime!

Look on hosts of helpless, neglected children, ten times more to be pitied than those whom the heaven mother casts into the Ganges or the Nile; look on their half-starved, half-clad bodies, their untaught, blighted minds and souls, and then say how long this modern juggernaut shall roll down your streets unchallenged—this chief of Satan's empire away his sceptre over this vanquished Christian land!

Arise and Fight

Arise, Christians, arise, and fight this foe! You, and you alone, are able for your God will fight for you! Oh, come up to His help against this mighty champion of hell, and He will empower you to banish the drink from all his armour wherein he trusted!

HAMILTON DIVISIONAL DOINGS

The Divisional Commander and Mrs. Chandler have just returned from a trip away up north. They report excellent times at every point visited, and Officers in good spirits.

Bracebridge was the first stop. A splendid crowd gathered for the meeting; and one soul sought Christ at the close.

Huntsville came next, and, after a running open-air, they found the Hall filled with a fine crowd. Quite a revival stir was in the air; some five seekers having been registered the previous Sunday, under the leadership of Adjutant Jordan of the Orillia. One more came at the close of the Divisional Commander's visit.

North Bay, still farther north, greeted the visitors with real cold weather, but the warmth of the hearts of the Officers from Sturgeon Falls assisted, and, after a splendid meeting, two souls were persuaded to seek Christ.

Conant was reached safely, and here the real thing in snow and ice was experienced, although the natives assured the Colonels that they had no complaint. Anyway, a mild blizzard kept the audience smaller than it would otherwise have been. The Officers from Huntsville and New Liskeard joined bands here and made things lively.

New Liskeard folks turned out well the following night, although the cold was certainly intense. A splendid meeting followed, when the Spirit of God came near.

Halliburton was the last one on the list, and a week-end of blessing followed; one seeker in the evening meeting and two at night in the morning.

The Officers were met by the Colonel and his wife on four different occasions during their stay, and there is no doubt but what they were cheered. Suspicious of all branches of the work was made by the Colonel, while Mrs. Chandler, who was in want of something to do, after she had received no help from the Patriotic Fund! The Legion took the matter in hand, and after investigation, the overnight was received the allowances due to her.

Some other incidents, showing the nature of the work performed by the Legion were as follows:

Sister S., a Salvationist, visited a woman whom she found had received a letter that very day from the front, telling her that her husband had been killed, and her son was in the trenches.

"Oh," she said; "it seems that God has sent you; you are such a comfort!"

Another home was found full of sorrow, owing to the fact that the husband had been killed, but before he could be sworn in, had no undergarments for some time. He was an operation for some agent. He could not be sworn in, but he was able to obtain some help for his wife and children.

By keeping a close observation of the daily work, the Secretary is able to locate many who need cheer.

A woman was found in bed sick with her three little ones playing around the room. She was prayed with and cheered and helped as much as possible.

With a head covered with snow, the Legion found the mother and wife of a soldier.

War-Stricken Women ARE CHEERED AND BLESSED BY THE SOCIAL SERVICE LEGION

THE shadow of war is lengthening over our land, and every week adds to the number of those who mourn the loss of loved ones stricken down in defence of the Empire. To cheer and bless the lonely and grief-stricken, especially the widows and fatherless children, is the aim of the newly-organized Social Service Legion, under the supervision of Mrs. Commissioner Richards, with Mrs. Brigadier Green as Secretary.

To ascertain what the members of the Legion have already done in this direction, a "War Cry" representative visited Mrs. Brigadier Green, who gladly gave particulars of the work.

Mrs. Brigadier Green

Mrs. Green had just returned from the C.E.F. Hall, when she says, "where she had gone to make an appeal on behalf of a particularly poor soldier."

"She told me of an old lady of 74, whose only son and support had enlisted in the first Canadian Trench or Cavalry, and had received no help from the Patriotic Fund! The Legion took the matter in hand, and after investigation, the overnight was received the allowances due to her."

Some other incidents, showing the nature of the work performed by the Legion were as follows:

Sister S., a Salvationist, visited a woman whom she found had received a letter that very day from the front, telling her that her husband had been killed, and her son was in the trenches.

"Oh," she said; "it seems that God has sent you; you are such a comfort!"

Another home was found full of sorrow, owing to the fact that the husband had been killed, but before he could be sworn in, had no undergarments for some time. He was an operation for some agent. He could not be sworn in, but he was able to obtain some help for his wife and children.

By keeping a close observation of the daily work, the Secretary is able to locate many who need cheer.

A woman was found in bed sick with her three little ones playing around the room. She was prayed with and cheered and helped as much as possible.

We need some comfort. Our boy is wounded, and has started for home. Here is a cable. Mrs. Green called at the home of an American, and found that three of the brothers had enlisted, one being a doctor in France. The other two were wounded and located in a hospital in England. Said the man, "I should like you to pray with me before you leave."

The wife of a soldier heard of the Social Service Legion and requested a visit. On the arrival of the workers it was found that the poor woman had received a cable and a newspaper, but could not read either.

The visitor opened the cable, only to read: "Your husband was killed in action." The poor woman fainted and the sight of the sorrow caused tears to flow down the cheeks of the visitors, and more so when it was noticed a large box had been shipped to the cable, only to be shipped to the front.

After becoming somewhat calmed the woman produced some of the letters written by her husband, and they were read. After the workers at the same time, point some to the Saviour.

God will smile upon such labour, and the Christ will say to those who delight to alleviate sorrow: "Inasmuch as ye have done it, then one must be cheered and inspired, being able to bless and cheer, and at the same time, point some to the Saviour."

Let other willing workers come to the help of Mrs. Brigadier Green and her co-workers.

The Salvation Army was able to give advice through the Legion, the wife of a soldier who is at the front. Seeing she wanted to join him in England, her passage was arranged, and every possible assistance rendered, thus cheering her spirits.

A very touching story has come before Mrs. Green in her visitation of an aged mother who had received a letter from her son, who is lying near death in a hospital. The letter was written by a nurse, and contained the request that the mother write and tell him about Jesus and His love, as he was not converted.

At the request of the mother, another appeal of mercy was done, in writing the letter. If he is still alive, we pray it shall accomplish the desired end.

A neat card has been printed, and is sent to all who have lost a loved one at the front. It reads: "The Eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms."

Then a few lines of poetry, followed by the Social Service Legion of the Salvation Army having heard of the sorrow of your bereavement, desire to offer you the assurance of their sympathy, and prayers that the great Father of us all will comfort and sustain you in this hour of trial.

A number of these cards have already been distributed.

Mrs. Brigadier Green states that Mrs. Adjutant Tyndall, who is a trained nurse, is of great value to the Legion, and recently nursed the wife of a soldier. Mrs. Brigadier Morris is also actively interested in the work, and undertakes some visitation. More members are needed, however, and it is requested that women Salvationists and others who may be interested come forward and offer their services.

An "Indian Meeting" is to be conducted by Adjutant and Mrs. Tyndall, who have spent seven and a half years in India. Another service, entitled "A Day in the Training College," is to be given by Mrs. Green, to help defray the expenses of this unnecessary labour of searching out those in need, rendering what assistance is in their power, and encouraging those whom the cruel war has robbed of protection and guardianship, is worthy of all assistance and help.

God will smile upon such labour, and the Christ will say to those who delight to alleviate sorrow: "Inasmuch as ye have done it, then one must be cheered and inspired, being able to bless and cheer, and at the same time, point some to the Saviour."

Let other willing workers come to the help of Mrs. Brigadier Green and her co-workers.

The war is affecting our different Corps in the City considerably by so many of our best Soldiers going to the front. Every Legion, who has shown such good service in the Division, has enlisted, and will be leaving for New Westminster in a few days for training. Bandmaster Gough, who was such a help with his clarinet at South Vancouver has also enlisted. Several of the fellows who have recently joined the ranks, and over thirty of the comrades from No. 1 are now fighting for their King—many of them are doing their very best, and the battle forward in the great Salvation War—Scribe.

On Monday night the Brigadier, assisted by Staff-Captain Smith, gave an illustrated lecture on "The European War and the Western Front." This was attended by a large crowd and for two hours the pictures showed on the screen and the lecture, and followed with deep interest by all present.

Last week-end Adjutant Brown conducted the meetings at No. 1, where they received over two hundred to the Mercy Seat. We are so very sick, and it is found necessary to supply the Corps with special Officers as yet. Staff-Captain Smith also had good meetings at the No. 1 Corps (South Vancouver) all day Sunday.

Interviewed a young man who, thinking about coming into the Work as an Officer, said he would do so if this young man will be applying.

INTERESTING INCIDENTS DURING CANADIAN COMRADES' SERVICE IN FRANCE—SOUKS SEEK SALVATION AT ARMY MEETING HELD IN RUINED CHURCH

"SAY, boys! Supposing we have a sing-song to buck us up!" The speaker was one of a hundred, and twenty Canadian lads in khaki who were billeted in a war-wrecked church "somewhere in France." There was left of them—the roof and the walls of the edifice—what the sunshine and the rain and occasionally shells.

The suggestion was adopted at once, and there were shouts for the eight Salvationists who were among the company. Four of these, who had been Bandmen in the Land of the Maple Leaf, had brought instruments with them, and a few minutes later the church was filled with the sound of voices and instruments.

It was the same at Petersburg. After being there for some time, the Salvationists were doing such good service, that the British and French authorities were beginning to take notice of them. They were being asked to take four girls into their homes, and care for them and their mothers, and they were able to do so, and work again, and the best of them, and no one would ever know she had done it.

One night last winter the phone rang about 11.30 at night. Would a young girl please go and bring her mother home, that had been influenced away by some man, away from the city, and it was one of the worst nights we had had lately. She had been sick at the time, but she hurried and got dressed, and went, not getting home again until about three o'clock in the morning.

How those men sang. "There is a Fountain Filled with Blood," "I will sing of Thee," "Nearer, My God, to Thee"—all that was for the Salvationists were striving for, to bring those men nearer to God. Nor were their efforts in vain. Presently one who had been standing dropped on his knees in the straw and quickly a Salvationist, pointing him to the Saviour. So there was another and yet another, until six were kneeling there seeking Salvation.

The comrade who told a British "C" representative this splendid story was Leander Burke, one of the eight Canadian Salvationists referred to above. He also had many other incidents of Salvation work to relate.

There was a heavy bombardment, and what a morning broke and in ceased the lad made his way to the Salvationist and said, "What you told me yesterday has come true, I want you to teach me how to pray: I want to love God."

Only a few days before, Brother Burke left for his furlough he was told that I had in his company, who had not even given a hint that he had been influenced for good, wrote some home don't expect me to carry on as I used to; I've seen something of real religion out here and I shall try it myself!

Our comrades have also met a number of men who have been at one time or another, carried by the Salvation Army Ambulances, and each have spoken highly of the gentleness and kindness of the men in charge. "They are so thoughtful," said one man, "and considerate; they look after us as well as women could do. If ever I'm wounded again I shall pray to fall in with one of your Ambulances."

"We Want Peace!" An interesting incident on the lighter side of the war occurred after one of the major naval victories "somewhere at sea." One of the Salvationists carried the trenches, jumped on the parapet and marching up and down, playing the "Welsh March."

"What's your celebratin' now?" asked a voice from the German trenches. The reply was shouted back, and the comrade continued his walk and playing. Presently another German voice called out, "Hi, you there!" "Yes, what's the matter?" asked a Canadian.

Then the enemy's spokesman made reply, "We've only got this war to fight, but we're compelled to do so! We want peace!"

Every morning the very excellent Band of the 7th Battalion practices in the Citadel, and in the afternoon, the young, but very promising, Band of the 9th Battalion (or American Legion) have the same privilege.

The Barracks and Hospital are regularly visited, the Salvationists cheer up, and some four hundred "War Cry" distributed every week.

Last Sunday, the best meeting so far was held. Sisters Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Minnes played and sang, and the men were wonderfully interested and very appreciative.

On the following Wednesday evening Adjutant and Mrs. Owen and two comrades came along. Their singing and praying, together with the Adjutant's interesting little talk, was much enjoyed. We hope they will come again.

The Mid-day Prayer Meeting is well attended. It is a source of much blessing and help.

Two Salvationist comrades, Brother Bernard White of the 40th Infantry and Brother J. H. Cornwell of the 31st Battery, who left with their Brigade on Wednesday evening, came in to say good-bye. God be with you both, said "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and gave them our blessing. Brother C. Abbott, "Temple Corps" of the C. A. M. C. also left, presumably for the Old Land. Our prayers follow him all.

He resides at Angoon, Alaska, and is an Army Soldier. He used to think that he was the Big Indian Chief, Captain Robt. Smith. Drink was a great curse to his life, and his wife, who also is converted and enrolled as a Soldier. I had the pleasure of marrying them according to the laws of the State.

CAMP NOTES By Adjutant Turner

As sure as each day succeeds the other, so surely are the numbers at the Camp Citadel steadily increasing, and as was intended, happily fraternizing, joining in the magazines, and books with which the institution is provided. Good which the men derive constantly from their return from their periods of drill and marching.

WAR-TIME RELIEF GERMAN SALVATION ARMY INSTITUTIONS SERVE AS HOSPITALS, ETC.

It is gratifying to find that Salvationists in Germany, who are "carrying on" just now in face of difficulties, the nature of which will be readily understood, continue to leave no stone unturned to minimize as far as possible the sufferings, hardships, and inconveniences arising out of the war.

It is true (says an account translated from an issue of "The War Cry" now to hand) that the best of our men, both Officers and Soldiers, are in the army; the others, however, have not become lax in their work of self-sacrifice which was born out of love to God and fellow-men. Of course, in the execution of the difficulties are now great, the means small, and the number of helpers less, but love conquers all ways.

The continuation of the Spiritual and Social Work has brought comfort and help to numbers of people. Immediately war broke out, we offered to the State our Social Institutions, and the following Homes are still in use as hospitals and convalescent homes—the Home for men in Düsseldorf, and in Rheindahlen, as well as the Rescue Home in Cologne.

War meals are provided in Hamburg every day for fifteen thousand people, also in Frankfurt, Lubbeck, Altona, and other towns. Children's Cribber has been started in Berlin, Freudenau, Gallunz (in Austria), Lorchach, Ziel, Bremen, and elsewhere.

Military Homes were taken first in Gumbinnen and in Kibitz; Russia. Now we have such Homes in Tilsit and in Mitau (Russia), and these are of great service to our soldiers. For the suffering people in East Prussia The Army gave five thousand marks, and with the help of friends this amount has been brought to ten thousand marks. Service of love is done in many towns by sharing out the charitable donations in our Halls, as well as in hospitals.

During the day we had a look round the new Home for Women and Children, part of which is already in use. We heard the best of it is not quite completed. Mrs. Adjutant received us with the lowest of bows, and after we had put on slippers, in order not to soil the spotless "tatami," or mats, covering the floors, a little tour of inspection took place. It was most interesting to see for the first time a real Japanese house, and to note the sliding doors and the apparently unfamiliar furniture.

Chinese Pioneer Party HAVE A PEEP AT DALNY AND THE ARMY WORK THERE

It was a pleasure to Colonel Kothwell and myself, while on our way to China (writes Brigadier Saker), to have a peep in passing at our Salvation Army comrades in Dalny. This is an outlying portion of the Japanese Territory, and Commissioner Mapp arranged that we should be warmly welcomed.

It was a delightful change after the immense plains of Siberia through which we had journeyed for days together, to find ourselves amongst the rugged grey hills of Southern Manchuria, which reminded one of Cumberland or Westmoreland, save that their lower slopes are clothed with small pine trees, giving a bright, fresh green to the landscape even in winter.

The train pulled into Dalny Station exactly on time, at nine in the morning of the twentieth day after our leaving London, and there on the platform was a little group of Salvationists in uniform, one of whom held the dear Army Flag. They knew very little English, and we knew no Japanese; but smiles, bows, and the universal word "Hallelujah," made us feel at home immediately.

They took charge of ourselves and our baggage, and we soon met Mrs. Adjutant Togochi, who explained in her pretty foreign English that the Adjutant was prevented by sickness from coming to meet us personally. He had, however, made all necessary arrangements for his sick bed for a meeting the same night in The Army Hall.

nished bedrooms (the beds, thick, wadded quilts, are rolled up and put away in the cupboard in the daytime). The living rooms appear unfurnished also to European eyes, since chairs are not required and meals are served on a low table only about a foot high, but everything is spotlessly clean.

A sound of merry chattering proceeded from one of the rooms, and when Mrs. Adjutant pushed back the sliding door there was revealed the quaintest group of nine tiny boys and girls from two to four years of age; real Japanese, of course, both in appearance and dress. They were having a happy time at play. The foreigner laughed and smiled back again. Then Mrs. Adjutant and something and they all put their foreheads to the ground and tried to say "Hallelujah!" The effect was bewitching.

Quant Schoolboys We also saw some bigger boys, who go to school, dressed in their neat blue blouses and peaked caps—the ordinary schoolboy dress; and who are also inmates of the Home. A gentleman who is particularly interested in boys, has defrayed the cost of special accommodation for them.

The Home is well situated on the outskirts of the town (yet not too far from the centre) with the hills rising up close at hand. There is a large piece of ground attached for growing vegetables, and it serves as a playground as well as a garden.

In the evening Mrs. Adjutant came to take us to the meeting, and tripped lightly along on her wooden "getto" or clogs. We heard the best of The Army drum, and soon saw the little procession with flag and lighted paper lanterns, advertising the meeting. They lined up outside the Hall, and sang some choruses. The Hall, seated with benches in European fashion, was nicely filled, and the audience stayed until the very end. A local gentleman kindly translated our addresses, and announced the meeting.

The Salvation Army has brought out the world no fewer than 200 Salvation Food Drays, and medical institutions, which last year supplied nearly eight million beds and nearly fourteen million meals to the very poor. There are 166 industrial institutions, at which 90,000 men were supplied with temporary and permanent work during the year, while at the Labour Bureau 25,100 negotiations were found during the same period.

other Japanese, who edits a paper for the Chinese, made a speech, welcoming The Salvation Army to China. We went into the prayer meeting, and after a little time a man came to the front, and stood making low bows before the Pentecost. A Sergeant quickly drew out a cushion and instructed him to kneel, and later on he prayed aloud, and we trust, got through.

Dalny is a thoroughly progressive and well-built-up town, and the population consists of Japanese and Chinese in about equal numbers. Though many in the streets wear European clothes, the Chinese Japanese dress is also largely worn—the tiny tops especially are very gayly decked in bright colours. The Chinese are mostly gowned in black or blue, and the many young clerks of this nationality employed at the banks and shops look extremely bright and business-like. The coolies wear blue, with knotted handkerchiefs on the head. We saw a crowd of them at the docks, sitting on their heels and eating all manner of queer edibles out of little bowls, with their dexterously-wielded chop sticks.

The train fares are governed by time, and not distance; for we saw (about two and a half cents) on our ride first-class for half a hour, and to the brave little band of Salvationists who fight there.

Our stay could only be brief, and with regret we had to say farewell to Dalny—where Emma, Janet and Ching so bravely met and welcomed us, and to the brave little band of Salvationists who fight there.

ADMIRAL'S GREETING SAYS THAT WAR HAS LED TO INCREASED BIBLE READING

Writing to the Editor of "Under the Colours," The Army's Magazine for Servicemen, Admiral Sir Robert Swinburne Lowry, K.C.B., says:—

"We have many earnest Christian men in the Royal Navy, who value the work of The Salvation Army; to them and the others I am sure this magazine will be of interest and help.

"One of the remarkable features of this war is the striking manner in which readiness to listen to the simple Gospel message has increased, while Bible reading has become far more general.

"On the other hand, amidst the absorbing work of war, it is harder for those who are striving to follow Christ to wait faithfully and consistently with Him.

"Therefore, anything which deepens the spiritual life of Christians will bring a double blessing on themselves first, and then on their influence by God's grace in winning others to Christ."

EXCUSES

According to reports in the newspapers, the recruiting sergeants are finding much young men to enlist in the service of their King and country. Some of the excuses given appear to be trifling, some amusing; as for instance, that of the husky-looking youth who said he'd make a hum soldier because he had come. When the issues at stake are so great, that does indeed seem a poor excuse for holding back.

It has occurred to me, however, that similar trifling excuses are made by many for not enlisting in the service of Christ. Some are afraid that their business will suffer, or that they will lose chances of making easy money. Material advantages seem of greater moment to them than the advancement of the Kingdom of God. So they sell their birthright for a mess of pottage and only wake up to the realization of what they have done when it is too late.

Compare these two investments. Stephen Paxson, a noted Sunday School worker, was once asked by a friend to take fifty thousand dollars for him and invest it in Western land, with equal shares in the problem. Paxson declined. Some years later they met. The fifty thousand dollars had been invested and doubled. Stephen Paxson drew out his notebook, and pointed to his record of fifty thousand children gathered into the Sunday School. "Add if I had to do it over again," he said, "I would not change the investment." He was a man who had a sense of right values.

Likewise what shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul? And to consider the other side of the question. What shall it profit a man, if he lose what the world calls gain, but turns many to righteousness. He shall shine as the stars for ever and ever. In view of the mighty issues at stake, therefore, how poor the excuse seems that business or worldly prospects will suffer if one enlists while there are many other feasible excuses that might be mentioned, such as fear of what people will say, opposition of relatives, afraid of getting shot by the devil, etc. The whole excuse of all perhaps is "I don't care," evidencing a total indifference to the great war between right and wrong. Awake, careless sinners, the dangers threatening you! Shake off the thrall of Satan; enlist under the banner of King Emmanuel and go with His conquering hosts from victory to victory.

The Staff Songsters at Paris

THE CHIEF SECRETARY
IN COMMAND—PUBLIC MEN
ARMY—SIX

THAT the citizens of Paris appreciate good singing and music was clearly manifested during the past week-end, when the Staff Songsters, with Colonel and Mrs. Gaskin in charge, visited Paris, and faced large and appreciative congregations at each engagement.

Their visit of the Songsters was in connection with the launching of a campaign for raising funds to rebuild the Army Hall in the town.

The first commodious Presbyterian Church, was filled for the morning service, and adding to the interest of the congregation was one hundred and three officers and men of the 125th Battalion, now quartered at Paris. Singing by the Male Choir, Staff Songsters, Major Arnold and Captain Mapp all assisted to mellow the listeners and bring an atmosphere of expectancy. None were disappointed as the Chief Secretary gave a convincing, eloquent, and well-thought-out address, and to hear a remark on an appreciative type of the audience conveyed the type of an address to which all heard when they said: "My soul was warmed and my faith enlarged."

Paris ladies, are like all right-thinking people in these times of war, and have a successful organization known as the Red Cross Society, under whose auspices the present structure being rendered insane through the action of the river.

It was the last week-end with Major Arnold as Conductor, and the Songsters entered very enthusiastically into their work, the outcome being one of the most successful week-ends yet spent.

On the arrival of the Staff Songsters, the Ladies Aid of the Baptist Church provided an excellent tea, at which Rev. Dr. Sowerby presided. Speeches of welcome and replying to the same were indulged in, after which Dr. Sowerby gave the Songsters some good advice and wished them a successful week-end.

A large crowd gathered at the station, and the Staff Songsters, for the occasion, for the Saturday night Mission and Mr. J. H. Fisher, M.P., presided. His remarks regarding the Arriving of the Songsters were kind, liberal, and to the point, and summed up in the words: "We must all acknowledge that The Salvation Army is a universal force; doing good everywhere."

The first part of the programme was rendered with precision and harmony, each item receiving hearty applause.

Brigadier Miller, who is a Paris boy and a school chum of the Chairman, was the first to the front to give an address.

After reviewing the steps of his life, the Brigadier told of these resolutions, he had made over thirty years ago in Paris, namely: To keep away from drink, to learn a trade, and to buy his mother a new dress with his first week's salary. All agreed the resolutions have been exemplified in his life.

Again the musical programme was continued, and the Male Choir, Staff Songsters, and Orchestra, along with the soloists, received much appreciation for their efforts.

A vote of thanks was moved by Rev. Dr. Sowerby (Baptist) and seconded by Rev. Mr. Brandon (Methodist), and unanimously carried by all present.

At 9:30 Sunday morning the Male Choir, under the direction of Lieut.-Colonel Smeeton, visited the Y. M. C. A., and conducted a meeting with the "4 U" and Y. Bible Clubs, consisting of some forty-five members.

Several of the Male Choir spoke and sang and an enjoyable meeting was the outcome. A vote of thanks is due the Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., who gave the male section of the Songsters all the liberties of the Institution.

The fine commodious Presbyterian Church, was filled for the morning service, and adding to the interest of the congregation was one hundred and three officers and men of the 125th Battalion, now quartered at Paris. Singing by the Male Choir, Staff Songsters, Major Arnold and Captain Mapp all assisted to mellow the listeners and bring an atmosphere of expectancy. None were disappointed as the Chief Secretary gave a convincing, eloquent, and well-thought-out address, and to hear a remark on an appreciative type of the audience conveyed the type of an address to which all heard when they said: "My soul was warmed and my faith enlarged."

Paris ladies, are like all right-thinking people in these times of war, and have a successful organization known as the Red Cross Society, under whose auspices the present structure being rendered insane through the action of the river.

It was the last week-end with Major Arnold as Conductor, and the Songsters entered very enthusiastically into their work, the outcome being one of the most successful week-ends yet spent.

On the arrival of the Staff Songsters, the Ladies Aid of the Baptist Church provided an excellent tea, at which Rev. Dr. Sowerby presided. Speeches of welcome and replying to the same were indulged in, after which Dr. Sowerby gave the Songsters some good advice and wished them a successful week-end.

A large crowd gathered at the station, and the Staff Songsters, for the occasion, for the Saturday night Mission and Mr. J. H. Fisher, M.P., presided. His remarks regarding the Arriving of the Songsters were kind, liberal, and to the point, and summed up in the words: "We must all acknowledge that The Salvation Army is a universal force; doing good everywhere."

The first part of the programme was rendered with precision and harmony, each item receiving hearty applause.

Brigadier Miller, who is a Paris boy and a school chum of the Chairman, was the first to the front to give an address.

After reviewing the steps of his life, the Brigadier told of these resolutions, he had made over thirty years ago in Paris, namely: To keep away from drink, to learn a trade, and to buy his mother a new dress with his first week's salary. All agreed the resolutions have been exemplified in his life.

Again the musical programme was continued, and the Male Choir, Staff Songsters, and Orchestra, along with the soloists, received much appreciation for their efforts.

PERSONALIA

INTERNATIONAL

The General spent the last week-end of January in leading a series of meetings in Birmingham. His public engagements also included week-end campaigns at Brighton and Nelson.

Mrs. Booth led crowded meetings at Wrexham, among the Welsh miners. There were fifty-two seekers.

Mrs. Booth met Scottish Young People in Council at St. Mary's Hall, Glasgow, on Sunday, Jan. 22. The Chief of the Staff conducted Young People's Councils in St. George's Hall, Liverpool, on Sunday, January 30th.

We much regret to announce that Commissioner Fabis Smith (South-Tucker) has been in a poor state of health. He was present at the opening of an Industrial Exhibition at London (who spoke very cordially of The Army's Work), but was too ill to continue his journey south, as arranged for by the London Convention.

The latest news, we are glad to say, is that he had so far recovered as to be able to attend the Convention, where he is taking much rest. We ask the prayers of readers on his behalf.

Commissioner Lamb and Colonel Jeffries have been added to the Salvation Army Assurance Society's Board of Directors.

All who know Colonel Lamb will sympathize with her and her family in connection with the many tribulations by her eldest brother who is on service in France. When resting in a railway line in a wood, he was run down and severely hurt by a train, the accident being killed on the spot. The latest information to hand says the sufferer is making some progress, though it is not satisfactory.

At the conclusion of the Congress the Commissioner proceeded to Estevan, Weyburn, and Moose Jaw, conducting the week-end meetings at the stationed Corps.

Mrs. Commissioner Sowden has arranged for a Tea and Entertainment for the wives of Soldiers at the front, on Thursdays, Feb. 18th. It will be held at the Winnipeg 1. Citadel.

Lieut.-Colonel Turner, accompanied by Staff-Captain Sims, left Winnipeg with the intention of arriving at Calgary in time for the opening meetings of the Congress, but were prevented from doing so on account of the train being four hours late.

Brigadier McLean, the Divisional Commander for British Columbia, recently delivered a lecture at New Westminster, entitled "The European War and the Work of The Salvation Army."

Brigadier Taylor and Staff-Captain Peacock will visit Kenora, Port Arthur, and Fort William, both being a deliver a lecture. The Brigadier's for the adults, entitled "Under Many Flags," and the Young People's Secretary especially for the Young People—"From Ocean to Ocean."

Major Hay and the Divisional Staff have had a busy time preparing for the Calgary Congress, but they did amply repaid, for they were delighted to have their Leaders in their midst, as were the Officers of the Division.

FREEDOM FOR SLAVES OF SIN

Many Break Away from Satan's Thralldom and Enlist in Army of Jehovah

COTTAGE MEETINGS THRIVE

Divisional Commander Leads On

On Monday night, Jan. 31st, St. John's was favoured with a visit from the Divisional Commander and Chancellor, Major Cretion and Staff-Captain Byers, and as it was also the night of our united meeting the Officers were present from Westville, Pictou, and New Glasgow. After a routine opening, a very interesting meeting was conducted by the Major and Staff-Captain. After a bright, spicy testimony meeting, led by the Staff-Captain, the Major enrolled a recruit, and then gave a stirring address, which brought conviction to the hearts of the sinners, and the result was two souls at the Mercy Seat claiming liberty.

The Cottage meetings are still proving a blessing. Once a week we go to Extonville, and last Thursday night forty were present. Quite a number have sought God in the cottage meetings, and we are believing that many more will be the slain of the Lord. Ensign and Mr. Johnstone are still leading on.—J. L. E.

GUARDS ORGANIZED

Chancellor Visits St. Catharines

On Sunday, Jan. 23rd, we at St. Catharines had Staff-Captain Burrows from Hamilton, with us. In the morning we had a splendid holiness meeting, and three souls came out for Sanctification and greater consecration. In the afternoon the Staff-Captain visited the Sunday School, after which he had a few words of encouragement and cheer with the Company Guards. In the evening he met the Young People before conducting the night Salvation meeting.

Captain Mapp, in her attractive and many uniform, was with us all last Sunday, Jan. 30th. The Life-Saving Guard Movement has just been started here. Sister Cooke, a young and energetic Salvationist, is the Leader. We pray she may make much success. Already there are sixteen girls who have joined on. We are all going in for victory.—E.

LOCALS COMMISSIONED

By Major Coombs—Corps in for Advances

On Thursday, Jan. 27th, the Local Officers of the Regina Corps were purified their commissions by Major Coombs. The speaker was very means inviting, but, despite that, a fairly good number were present. After the Major had given a little talk he proceeded to hand out the commissions.

Regina Corps has always striven to go on and further God's work, and now that all our Locals (with the exception of the Corps Secretary) are appointed, it is a sort of an incentive to us to strive to do still more for God. The prayers of Salvationists are earnestly requested on behalf of Bandsman Waterhouse.

—A. H. Smith.

CANT THEY SING!

Kiki Boys Attend the Meetings

Good meetings are being held at Moose Jaw, and the near presence of God being made manifest, in spite of the severe weather we are having here just now. Our leaders, Staff-Captain A. Goodwin and Lieutenant A. Saunders, are of the "never-say-die" type, and although the thermometer has fallen to as much as forty-seven below, open-air is still being held, and we believe God will bless the sacrifice.

On Sunday afternoon the infant son of two of our latest converts, Brother and Sister Miller, was dedicated to God and the dear old Army, by Staff-Captain Goodwin. God bless the mother and child.

A splendid crowd of the "boys" of the 12th Battalion, C.E.F., occupied the front seats in the night meeting, and we had them sing some of our songs. We are praying for their Salvation, as we have already had quite a few conversions among this regiment. God bless the kiki warriors. We are expecting great times next week, when we shall (D.V.) receive a visit from our beloved Commissioner Sowton and his dear wife. God bless them!—Sergt. Mac.

NEW OFFICERS

Heartily Welcomed—A Good Start

We are very fortunate at Hamilton II, in securing for our new Officers, Staff-Captain E. H. and Staff-Captain G. Since their arrival and welcome on Jan. 27th, we have experienced a remarkable change, both in attendance and in the quality of the meetings, and also there is a far better spirit prevailing amongst us than has been for some considerable time. The Divine Presence of God is truly with us, and the Holy Ghost is being manifested in our midst. Our prayers are being answered.

Although our new Officers have only been with us a few days, we have already seen five souls kneeling at the Mercy Seat, and we are glad to report that they are all standing well for the Master. We are not only praying, but we are believing, that God is going to send yet a still greater revival.—G. E. P.

BACKSLIDERS RETURN

The visit of Major Barr to Amherst, Jan. 22nd-23rd, was attended by large crowds. In the afternoon the Local Officers were commissioned, and the dedication of the two children of Sergeant-Major Doucette. The speaker was very means inviting, but, despite that, a fairly good number were present. After the Major had given a little talk he proceeded to hand out the commissions.

Regina Corps has always striven to go on and further God's work, and now that all our Locals (with the exception of the Corps Secretary) are appointed, it is a sort of an incentive to us to strive to do still more for God. ### TWOED—Week-end meetings were led by Captain Taylor. The power and presence of God was felt in the meetings, and one soul sought Salvation. We are in for victory. H.

COTTAGE MEETINGS

Praying for the Sick and Unwashed

Wychood Corps is going ahead under Adjutant and Mrs. Parsons. Several souls have been converted lately. We have recently started the Cottage Meetings again, at the homes of the different comrades each Thursday night, which is proving very helpful to all who attend. Also the sisters of our Corps are meeting at the Hall every Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock for the purpose of praying for the sick comrades of our Corps and for the unwashed that they may be brought to know Christ as their own personal Saviour.

On a recent Sunday we had Brigadier and Mrs. Miller with us. The morning holiness meeting was a time of great blessing to all. Mrs. Miller read the lesson and spoke. In the afternoon the Brigadier spoke on the Naval and Military League, which was very interesting.

In the night meeting Mrs. Miller gave a powerful address, and we finished with one soul at the Mercy Seat.—E. G. Stockdale.

CHAKI MEN

Appreciate Playing of Army Band

Adjutant Trickley of St. Thomas and Adjutant Mercer of Chatham changed over on a recent week-end and each report good times, although it rained incessantly on Sunday.

The soldiers of the 91st Battalion stationed here in St. Thomas appreciate the Army meetings, and every Sunday morning the Hall is nearly filled with men in khaki who form up at their barracks and march nearly a mile to be present.

Recently a meeting was held at their barracks, several selections being given by the Band. One of the khaki boys went around with his cap, and returned surprising us with a handsome collection. An urgent request was made that we go again Sunday, and the Adjutant promised the V.M.C.A. Secretary there (Mr. Little), we would be glad to assist him at any time.—Britannia.

ADDRESS MEN

On Vital Subject—Co-operation Is Given

Adjutant Trickley (one of the Committee of One Hundred in St. Thomas) on one occasion addressed a large mass meeting at the V.M.C.A. The Adjutant requested to canvass a large portion of the business district with the petition. In doing this he found professional men of every class and denomination ready to sign for a dry Province. In one or two instances every member of the highest firms in the city affixed their signatures, altogether over eighty per cent. of the business men canvassed fell into line. Nearly 2,500 of the regular voters of the city have signed to date. Every church, with its pastor, has been thoroughly aroused, and the public generally have thundered out the evils of the traffic.

PEOPLE IMPRESSED

By Brewer Brown's Life Story

In connection, at Smith's Falls, with Envoy Brewer Brown's Tuesday Campaign, the Envoy preached to a very large and appreciative congregation in the Baptist Church on the Sunday morning, and at Carleton Place and Almonte in the Town Hall, as there is no Army Corps at these places. Supported by the ministers of the various churches, the Envoy gave a chapter of his life, "From Prison to Pulpit," during the evening. The story of his life, again facing a large crowd at the Baptist Church, who were very much moved by the story of how the Envoy was rescued from a life of crime by the Army. Result—two souls.—Captain Voss.

BIG DRIVE AT HESPELER

Captain and Mrs. Howick, our Officers at Hesperler, took us on to scale the enemies' lines, on Jan. 31st. In the Young People's Decision Meeting the Captain and his Workers were hard on the heels of the devil, winning a victory of fifteen at the Pentecost Home.

The Captain led on in the holiness meeting, and after a powerful talk on "The Life of Holiness," two souls were the result.

At night many were convicted—our military soldier boldly marched to the Pentecost Home and found Salvation, leaving his pipe and tobacco; making eighteen souls for the day. Hallelujah! The Captain is working up a nice band here, and we are in for a great soul-saving victory. God is with us.

TWO COMRADES ENROLLED

Since our last report from Sydney Mines, we have had four more promising cases of conversion. There was a number of the converts previously referred to are taking their stand and going in for victory. On Sunday, Jan. 23rd, we enrolled two comrades, under the Eldorado Ring.

Monday night we had with us Ensign and Mrs. Spaulding, with quite a number of the Officers from North Sydney, and altogether we enjoyed an old-fashioned Salvation meeting. These united meetings are attracting considerable interest, and we believe will be of great blessing. Sydney Mines is in for victory.—S.

SEVEN AT THE CROSS

We are still on the parade at Port Louisbourg (N.S.). Since you heard from us last we are having good times. On Sunday night we had the joy of seeing seven at the Cross. The Adjutant was the saving power of God. The meeting was well enjoyed and the Soldiers are in good trim. Our faith is still up for the city here signed to date. Every church, with its pastor, has been thoroughly aroused, and the public generally have thundered out the evils of the traffic.

STAFF SOCIETY

field, while the strains of the violin could be heard, playing "Home, Sweet Home," and "Crossing the Bar," which had a mellowing effect on the congregation, and prepared the people for "The Salvation Army address." On "The Salvation Army address," the European War, Rapt attention was given as the Colonel told of the thrilling experiences. Salvationists have passed through and also of the noble and heroic actions of our comrades in various parts of the world.

The Chairman, in thanking the Chief Secretary for his masterly address, stated that he had no copy of the address, and was doing so much for the allied nations of the world, and said that while we were sitting in the quietness under the institution known as the Union Jack, that all should value such organizations, that were doing good, and that in elevating and blessing our soldiers. It was a grand meeting, and the Red Cross Society profited liberally.

The Town Theatre, for the last engagement, was packed to its utmost capacity, and many a young person was again the singing of the Red Cross was used of God to bless the people.

The Chief Secretary described the Red Cross as a body that none present could doubt its realities and the prerogatives that kept people in the faith, and as Lieut. Colonel Sweeney and Chandler led the prayer meeting in turns, six decided to start for that beautiful City, Mrs. Sweeney worked hard in the prayer meeting, and with others, led the soldiers to the Cross.

Captain Morgan thanked the visitors for their labours, and deserves a vote of thanks for the splendid arrangements made and the beautiful help for the accommodation of all. Major Moore and Captain Sparks, who are at present working in Paris, did excellent service throughout the day.

The verdict of all is that it was a successful and happy week-end, and all pray that the seed sown shall be watered by God and be productive of much increase and good in the days that are to come.

OFFICERS APPRECIATED

The staff at Tillsonburg are looking a little brighter. Our Officers, Captain Webster and Lieutenant Weir, are looking, and outsiders appreciate their singing on the streets.

On Friday, Jan. 28th, two young men came out for Salvation, and on Saturday, Jan. 30th, although it rained, they kept up a steady rain both nights, and out, and at night one young woman sought and found help.

Mr. Corrie is not up to the strength of a battalion yet, but every one is doing their bit towards building up Christ's Kingdom. We are praying and believing for more recruits to help us with Tillsonburg for Jesus.—T. C. S.

VISIT TOO SHORT

We had with us at Fredericton on Jan. 26th-28th, Brigadier Bridgford. His meetings were full of interest for young and old alike. In fact, the general cry was "It was too short; why couldn't he stay longer." We were deeply moved spiritually by his talks on the Bible. The value of the child and the children's work was kept to the front in the meetings, finishing up with one for Salvation.—V. S. G.

Commr. and Mrs. Sowton

CONDUCT STIRRING MEETINGS AT EDMONTON, AND ARE WARMLY WELCOMED AT RED DEER AND CALGARY

COMMISSIONER and Mrs. Sowton visited the Capital City of Alberta (Edmonton) on Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 22nd and 23rd. The exceptionally cold weather affected the attendance somewhat at the various meetings. On Saturday night the service was held in the No. 11 Hall, and an enjoyable evening was spent.

Sunday's gatherings were greatly looked forward to, and although numbers were not as large as had been anticipated, on account of the zero weather, those present will remember the visit of the Western Territorial Commanders. The holiness meeting in the morning was a time of blessing.

The Young People had been promised that the Commissioner would pay them a visit in the afternoon, and they looked forward to the occasion with great interest. His words of encouragement to the Young People's Locals and others who were present, and the rapid attention given, shows they were not only interested, but that they were also looking forward to his advice and counsel.

The afternoon service proved to be an ideal "prayer" meeting. After the opening services the Commissioner delivered a short address of a very convincing character, and impressed upon the congregation the reality of religion and the power in the blood of Christ to cleanse and His Grace to keep.

Ensign Wright, the Officer in charge, was called upon to lead the service, and a number of comrades were told, out of a full heart, what God had done to him, and was doing for them, day by day. Mrs. Commissioner Sowton spoke, and in the prayer meeting that followed a young woman came forward.

The Commissioner was supported during the day by Major and Mrs. Hay and Adjutant and Mrs. Cummins. A large number of Salvation Majesties' Forests, were very pleased to be of service in the various meetings. The Commissioner's address, although there were no visible results, undoubtedly lasting good will eventually be the result of the efforts put forth.

RED DEER

A welcome meeting was held in the City Hall on Jan. 25th, at which a large crowd attended. Major Hay conducted the preliminaries, and introduced the Chairman, Hon. R. McInnes, M.P., who kindly entertained the Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton.

Mrs. Sowton's words were very helpful and interesting. The Commissioner's address was listened to with rapt attention, which told of his experiences in various bands.

A vote of thanks was moved by Rev. Mr. Ross (Methodist) and seconded by Captain Paxman. A very interesting meeting closed with the Soldiers and friends of Red Deer Band, and he is to be congratulated on their playing. Our visitors sang several appropriate selections during the evening, which were listened to with evident pleasure by the congregation.

CALGARY III.

Wednesday, Jan. 26th, Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton paid their first visit to Calgary III, and although the temperature registered forty below zero, a good crowd had gathered for the occasion.

Hon. Mr. Cushing presided over the meeting, and gave our Leaders a warm welcome to East Calgary, which part of the city, he said, would eventually be the best.

The words of Mrs. Commissioner Sowton were full of inspiration and blessing. A tune from the Band, and the Commissioner rose to his feet, giving a masterly address, which the audience appreciated very much.

The Rev. Mr. McTaggart, in moving a vote of thanks, stated that he felt quite at home in an Army meeting, and thanked the Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton for their addresses. They had warmed his soul, and he hoped it would not be long until they paid a return visit to Calgary East.

Major Hay took an active part in the meeting, and thanked the Chairman for his interest in the Army. There were many Officers present at the meeting.

TERRITORIAL SINGERS

VISIT ST. JAMES

St. James Corps had the pleasure of a visit from the Territorial (Winnipeg) Salvation Singers on Sunday, Jan. 30th. Our Officer, Captain Hodgson, has been very ill with pneumonia, but has now practically recovered, although he is still unable to be present at the night meeting. Ensign Pagnire stated he regretted very much that four members of the Singers were unable to be present, owing to ill-health, and other reasons; but those that had been able to come would do their best to help and bless the comrades, and also if possible the means in God's Hands of the conversion of some souls during the day's meetings.

Mrs. Captain Hodgson worked hard to advertise the special services. The weather prevented many people from attending, who, had it not been so inclement, would have been pleased to do so. However, a good crowd was present at the morning holiness service, which was a means of cheer, encouragement, and help to all.

A number of young people attended the afternoon service of song and the Leader of the Young People's Workers. The general opinion was that the Singers sang very well, especially when so many of the members were absent was taken into consideration. Miss Corrie volunteered very sweetly on two occasions, and Brother Charles Sowton read the Scriptures during the course of the service.

Practically a full band turned out for the night meeting. A number of our boys have "put on the khaki." Bandsman Dancy, whose work prevents him attending the morning and afternoon meetings, led the Band, and he is to be congratulated on their playing. Our visitors sang several appropriate selections during the evening, which were listened to with evident pleasure by the congregation.

Mrs. Staff-Captain Tudge and Ensign Wright, who were the guests of personal testimony, and Ensign Pagnire delivered a very clear and convincing Salvation address.

Calgary Councils

CONDUCTED BY COMMISSIONER AND MRS. SOWTON

Season of Rich Blessing and Faith

A public welcome in the Citadel to all the visiting Officers was the first event of the Calgary Councils. Major Hay heartily welcomed all to Calgary, and then called on various other Officers to speak. These included Adjutants Merritt, Allen, and Wood, Ensign McIntire, Captain Paxman, Hiel, and Acton. Commissioner Sowton gave a masterly address.

On Sunday Mrs. Commissioner Sowton, assisted by Mrs. Major Hay and the Officers from the Men's and Women's Social Institutions, conducted the meetings at Hillhurst. A woman sought Full Salvation.

At night the Hon. Mr. Cushing was present, Mrs. Sowton, though suffering from an attack of grippe, gave an earnest and stirring address, and two weary, sin-sick souls came to Jesus.

The Councils proper began on Monday, Jan. 31st, with forty-one Officers present. They were seasons of great blessing, and the Commissioner's words will long live in our memories.

How beautiful the spirit that conquers by the force of real intercourse with Heaven appeared in it. How His precious form came down to follow, at risk of loss of rest, of comfort (temporarily), or of other human hindrance. Already we see by faith in every Corps the Spirit bringing, as a result of those Councils, better Soldiers, and more of them, and as a natural result, more sinners under conviction, and open-air more of a true success. Juniors looking to us because of a casual interest in them personally.—L. J. Bryanton, Adjutant.

led them to several of the Corps in his Division. Major Doherty has been a very successful week-end at Saskatoon. His various addresses were much appreciated by all who attended the meetings. The Major has just arrived in the city, having been considerably delayed on account of the severe weather.

Staff-Captain Peacock, the Young People's Secretary, has returned from a visit to Nepean and Danforth. At the former place a very bad blizzard was responsible for the small attendance at the meetings.

The Auditors are at present conducting their periodical audits, and are expected to be in the City of the Financial Department are extremely busy.

Brother and Sister S. Kancercow, who, for a number of years, have been attached to the Industrial Department, Winnipeg, have been re-accepted recently, and now hold the rank of the Secretary. Captain Congratulations!

Captain Townsend, of the Men's Social Department, conducted the meeting in St. James' Hall on Sunday, January 30th.

Ensign Jensen, who is attached to the British Columbia Division, has come to St. James' Hall during work, and was a welcome visitor at the different Corps.

We regret to learn that Adjutant McInnes, of Vancouver, has been under the doctor's care. Let us pray that the Adjutant, together with our other sick comrades, will soon be restored to health.

ARMY SONGS

JESUS IS PASSING
Tune.—While shepherds watched,
65; Song Book, 49.
Come, weary sinner, to the Cross,
The Saviour bids you come;
Come trusting in His precious Blood,
Wait not—there still is room.

Chorus
Jesus' now is passing by.
Oh, why delay your long return?
The Spirit gently pleads:
Come to the Cross, whereon for you
The dying Saviour bleeds.
He waits to fill your soul with joy,
And all your sins forgive;
His love for you no tongue can tell,
Or, trust His grace and love!

HALLELUJAH! I AM SAVED!
Tune.—I am saved.
I am saved, I am saved,
Jesus bids me go free;
He has bought with a price
Even me, even me.

Chorus
Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
To my Saviour!
Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Wonderous love, wonderful love,
Now the gift I receive;
I have rest in His word,
I believe, I believe.

I am cleansed, I am cleansed,
I am whiter than snow;
He is mighty to save—
This I know, this I know.

SINNER, LISTEN!
Tune.—Silver threads.
Sinner, listen to my story
Of the Man of Galilee,
How He wooed and won me to Him,
I will tell it now to thee:
I was speeding, swiftly speeding,
Down to endless misery,
But His sweet voice spoke so gently,
"Listen! child, I died for thee."

Chorus
Hallelujah! that I hearkened
To the Man of Galilee;
He did save my soul so surely,
Praise Him now for liberty!

FORWARD WE MARCH!
Tune.—Victory for me.
Soldiers of the Cross, declaring
War against the powers of sin;
Fearless every danger braving,
Souls for God we fight to win.
Now at His Divine command
Into line our ranks were forming,
And we'll march through every land,
Forts of darkness bravely storming!

Chorus
All victorious, bright and glorious,
See our colours fly!
Souls to win from woe and sin,
We'll fight till we die;
Forward we march—
In the name of Christ our Leader,
Forward we march—
On to victory!

Not by human might or power,
Vanquished foes around us fall;
Christ our Lord we every hour
While obedient to His call.
Leads us forward day and night,
Yea, His presence ne'er forsakes us.
More than conquerors in this fight
On life's battlefield He makes us.

Soon the Crowning Day is coming,
When God's Soldiers tried and true;
Shall appear among the ransomed,
There in Heaven's grand review.
Christ to them shall say, "Well done!"
And a crown of life bestowing;
Bring His own in triumph home,
Where eternal joys are flowing.
—Sergeant McGee, Moose Jaw.

CLINGING, LORD, TO THEE
Tune.—Wells, 91; Spanish chant,
90; Song Book, 173.
Rock of Ages, cleave for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee;
Let the water and the blood
From Thy wounded side which flowed;
Be of sin the double cure,
Save from wrath, and make me pure.

Could my tears for ever flow,
Could my zeal no languor know;
These for sin could not atone,
Thou must save, and Thou alone;
In my hands no price I bring,
Simply to Thy Cross I cling.

While I draw this fleeting breath,
When my eyes shall close in death;
When I rise to worlds unknown,
See Thee on Thy Judgment throne;
Rock of Ages, cleave for me,
I will hide myself in Thee.

COMRADES UNITED

Welcome to the New Lieutenant

The Soldiers of Fort Frances
Corps all united on Sunday, Jan.
23rd, in giving Lieutenant Sil a very hearty welcome into our midst. The Lieutenant arrived on Wednesday,
Jan. 19th, but the real welcome did not take place until Sunday, Jan.
23rd, when we had some splendid meetings. We feel sure the Lieutenant is going to be a great blessing to our Soldiers and Converts here, as well as to the citizens of Fort Frances. Already we have seen three souls kneeling for mercy and peace, and we believe that God is going to work through the united efforts of our Officers and Soldiers, that many more may be brought to acknowledge our blessed Saviour.

On Wednesday, Jan. 26th, we had a Social Gathering in our Hall, when our new Lieutenant had an opportunity to get well acquainted with all the Soldiers and friends of our Corps. Most of our men Soldiers and Converts are at present in kinks, but are still in Fort Frances.

We understand Lieutenant Sil has been doing a splendid work among the military boys in Niagara—where she was last stationed—and they were sorry to lose her.
Lieutenant Brown, who had worked amongst us faithfully and well for upwards of six months, has farewelled. Yet we feel that our loss is going to be some one's gain—S.

Women Workers
ARE WANTED FOR THE Special Service Legion

Mrs. Brigadier Green would like to hear from any woman who has been serving in the Special Service Legion, or who is willing to devote part of her time to visiting the wives and families of soldiers who have been killed in the
present war.

A number of consecrated workers
are already engaged in this work, and
are bringing cheer and blessing into many lives. There is an opportunity for others to join the Legion to do
systematic visitation. Write to Mrs.
Brigadier Green, Territorial Headquarters, James and Albert Streets, Toronto.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED!

Adjutant Tunner, who is working
among the troops at the Exhibition
Camp, Toronto, would be glad to hear from anyone with musical
ability, who is willing to help in the service at the Camp. An organist
and some comrades with stringed instruments would add greatly to the attractiveness of the entertainment. Write to Adjutant Tunner, Salvation Army
Hall, Exhibition Camp, Toronto.
